

WASHINGTON CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

reverent, adventurous, academically serious

Washington Christian Academy Job Posting Advertisement

Opening for 2017-2018 School Year: Classroom Teacher

Experienced Classroom teacher sought for a highly academic, interactive environment. Washington Christian Academy encourages a winsome combination of strong discipline and student initiative. WCA is growing, positive, and supportive, with an exceptional faculty that works together in a positive environment. WCA has a strong liberal arts program encouraging critical thinking in all academic disciplines. We seek to hire experienced teachers with a mature Christian walk, that are currently part of a home church or Christian faith community.

Teacher Qualifications: Minimum qualifications include:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution
- Commitment to Christian education and willingness to teach from a Christian worldview
- Agreement (pledged by signature) to the Washington Christian School Society Constitution
- Dedication to teaching young people
- Subject area expertise
- Evidence of successful teaching or work with children
- Genuine personal Christian commitment; active membership in a Bible-believing church

Preferred qualifications (but not mandatory):

- State teacher certification
- Degree in teaching area
- Formal teaching experience
- Broad knowledge of Reformed or Presbyterian distinctives

Washington Christian is a diverse, gospel-based Christian school in the Reformed tradition, yet seeking to be engaged with culture and prepare Christian students for service in all walks of life. A growing school of 300+ students from very diverse backgrounds, WCA has operated on the Montgomery County, MD side of the DC metro area for over 55 years. Students are accepted from Christian families that attend over 80 different churches in our area, we lease an exceptional facility at our current location, and have an outstanding faculty. Please look at the Employment page of our website at www.washingtonchristian.org. Feel free to fill out an application from our website, but be assured you will receive full consideration by emailing a resume to employment@washingtonchristian.org.